

FUN WITH CANCER PATIENTS RESEARCH Consent Form

This research forms part of a wider project on researching live art led by Dr Cath Lambert from the University of Warwick.

It is funded by the Arts and Humanities Council (AHRC). The research explores the social, cultural, political and emotional value of art to individuals and communities, using a variety of approaches.

The research adheres to strict ethical guidelines and all contributions to the project will be anonymised and the privacy and opinions of individuals respected.

Thanks for agreeing to participate.

Name

Contact details

- I agree for my input to the research to be audio recorded ☐
- I agree for my input to the research to be video recorded ☐
- I agree for any images I produce to be used (anonymously) for the purposes of the research ☐
- I understand that no words or other outputs will be attributed to me without my express permission and that I have the right to withdraw at any time ☐

For further information on the research project please go to:

FUN WITH CANCER PATIENTS RESEARCH HUB
c/o mac Birmingham
Cannon Hill Park
Birmingham B 12 9QH

www.livearthub.com (website)
researchingliveart@gmail.com (email)
@livearthub (twitter)

fierce

Arts & Humanities
Research Council

THE UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK